Race Report

A near perfect day for 71 competitors, course slightly longer this year due to silage gathering. Sunshine in the valley, cloudy summit with quite a strong wind – cold for the marshalls. But, it makes for a grand prospect to run over & demanded full kit to be carried.

The winner Stuart Bond & runner-up Andrew Schofield (also 1st V40) turned together at the summit & stayed so as they neared the run in from the bridge. Stuart ran in clear though, 3rd placed Alan Smith (1st V45) a few seconds back, having descended well to pass Bruce Elsworth & to close a gap of nearly 2 minutes on the leading pair. The ladies' winner was Hazel Robinson, 2nd Julie Carter (1st LV40) & 3rd Holly Page. Will Marshall was the only junior U18 to run & came in a very creditable 16th, also was 4th counter for the Wharfedale Harriers winning team, 2nd team was CFR, 3rd Clayton & 4th Helm Hill.

V40 runner up was Settle's John Dryden, 3rd Andy Holden, Wharfedale, 2nd V45 Gary Bastow, Ripon, 3rd Clayton's Andrew Dugdale. 1st V50 was CFR's Willie Bell, 2nd Andy Butler, Pennine, 3rd Lyndon Dixon, Helm Hill, 1st V55 Ellenborough's Jackie Winn, 2nd Richard Scottney, Pennine. 1st V60 was Borrowdale's John Nixon, 2nd Jack King U/A, 3rd Lochaber's Ernie Orr. 1st V65 was Peter Dowker, Kendal, 2nd Mike Briggs, Wirksworth.

2nd ladies LV40 was Lochaber's Linda MacEwan, 3rd Helen Yeoman, Rossendale. 2nd LV45 was Deeside's Tilly Smith & 1st LV50 was Nancy Kennedy, Lochaber.

The King of the Mountains trophy (cumulative points from the Snowdon, Ben Nevis & Scafell Pike) had 13 entries this year which shows how the idea must be catching on. The King was Bruce Elsworth, 2nd the 'prince' Alan Smith & 3rd was Dave Ward. The Queen of the Mountains was Linda MacEwan, the princess was Nancy Kennedy!

The winning Jack & Jill couple were Mike & Hazel Robinson, 2nd Alan & Tilly Smith, 3rd Chris Newman & Kate Rogan.

Thanks to Rod Chilton & Richard, Nathaniel & Michael Green, summit checkpoint, Peter o'Neill base radio, Jim Davies & Lindsay Buck race registration, Bob Davies course flagging, & Jim & June Hall for time-keeping & to June for giving out the prizes.

A great day out for us organisers – hope you enjoyed the quirky flapjacks! - trust you all had a good run & we'll see at least some of you next year.

Cheers, Richard Eastman
