A good field of 80 competitors for the inaugural race up England's highest mountain and a fine winning time - congratulations to Colin Valentine.

Conditions were generally good, despite a patch of mist near the top which confused a number of competitors and a total of 13 arrived back having made a lengthy detour into Eskdale. This emphasises yet again the necessity for adequate route finding ability on strange terrain.

Many thanks to the Barn Door Shop who generously sponsored the race and to the many volunteer marshals and officials, some of whom were new faces to C.F.R.A. race organization and who we hope to see again in the future.

Alex Smith.
